A substantial riverside residence with over 3,400 sq feet of incredibly versatile accommodation occupying an elevated south facing location with far reaching views and grounds extending to approximately 0.8 acres.

Features include extensive private parking for multiple vehicles, a detached triple garage with games room/office above and an impressive recently built boathouse with an internal mooring measuring 33ft x 20ft as well as a separate external mooring measuring 38ft x 10ft.

Of brick built construction under a tiled roof, the property occupies a commanding position looking out over the water with views out towards Horning Sailing Club, The Swan public house and the River Bure beyond.

The deceptive, spacious and flexible accommodation, which includes three staircases, provides potential for multi-generational living, scope for working from home or even an element of holiday accommodation.

The location is second to none, set on the outskirts of Horning, arguably the Norfolk Broads' most sought after village, with direct access to the River Bure and the entire Broads network while also retaining a huge amount of privacy.

Offered for sale with no onward chain. Early viewing is recommended.
