MOORING PLOT, HERBERT WOODS MARINA, POTTER HEIGHAM NR29 5JD

- Freehold mooring plot measuring 29'10"
- Power, water and parking
- Highly regarded marina just off the River Thurne
- Security barrier access

A freehold side on mooring plot extending to approximately 29'10" with power, water and parking available set just off the River Thurne.

Located in a highly regarded marina with toilet and shower facilities on site with a scenic picnic area and access via an electronic security barrier, ensuring a good degree of privacy.

Electricity is supplied via a card operated smart meter with water provided via a shared tap. Wifi is available via separate arrangement with the marina.

The site gives easy access out onto the main river and sits adjacent to open fields and marshes with far reaching open views.

LOCATION

The Herbert Woods Marina is set at the very heart of the Norfolk Broads in the popular village of Potter Heigham, well known for the medieval bridge, thought to date back to 1385, and Lathams, the biggest discount store on the Broads. The village also benefits from two pubs, a coffee shop, tea room/restaurant, large fishing tackle shop, a Post Office / general store and a fish and chip shop.

There is access to the entire Broads network via the River Thurne, leading to Hickling, Ludham, Horning, Wroxham and beyond.

HERBERT WOODS MARINA

Herbert Woods Marina offers the full range of boatyard facilities including pump out, refuelling, gas, cramage with fully qualified marine engineers, and boat builders on site to help meet all servicing and repair needs, along with an upholstery shop.
