An immaculately presented and perfectly positioned waterside residence set just off the River Bure on the outskirts of Horning. Built to the highest standards by Wroxham Builders in 2005, this stunning broads retreat has been comprehensively upgraded by the current owners who have carried out works that include: replacement windows and bi-fold doors (2018/2020), all new programmable electric radiators (2022), fully replaced quay heading, including the interior of the boathouse (2023/24), the addition of frameless glass balustrades to both the balconies (2022) and the resurfacing of the driveway (2024).

Built on steel and concrete piles with a steel ring beam, this imposing riverside home offers spacious and versatile accommodation that consists of a truly impressive first floor living room which is flooded with natural light from a wealth of windows including a part glazed gable and bi-folding doors leading out onto a large L-shaped balcony with far reaching views out over Horning Sailing Club and the River Bure beyond. The generous kitchen/breakfast room offers a comprehensive range of fitted and built in appliances as well as access out onto a second balcony, which benefits from a south westerly spect.

There are currently three double bedrooms served by three shower rooms.

The ground floor is dominated by the substantial integral boathouse which provides a generous mooring dock measuring approximatey 36ft x 17'6" and timber remote controlled double doors. This high quality facility is further complemented by a large utility/storage room.

Also on the ground floor is a walk in cloakroom and a spacious games/sitting room, the original layout included a fourth double bedroom which could easily be reinstated if required.

Occupying a quiet and private location, set back from the main river and the main road, with extensive off road parking and newly decked outside areas ensuring low maintenance, establishing this property as the ultimate lock up and leave second home while also being well positioned to be either a high spec main residence or a perfectly placed holiday let.

Contents are available by separate negotiation and there is no onward chain.
