An imposing Georgian residence occupying an exceptional riverside setting within walking distance of the centre of Beccles.

This beautifully presented period property has been the subject of a comprehensive and sympathetic programme of renovations and offers all the benefits of a waterside lifestyle combined with the convenience and versatility of a substantial town house.

The well proportioned and flexible accommodation consists of a reception hall, a dual aspect sitting room with a woodburner, which leads through to a conservatory looking out over the River Waveney. The spacious dining room is ideal for entertaining, with the capacity to comfortably seat 10, whilst currently doubling as a games room, housing a 3/4 size snooker table.

The cottage style kitchen has been well finished with solid wooden worktops with exposed ceiling timbers and a woodburner and leads into a separate breakfast room and additional utility room, and also into a 29'10" long garden room which enjoys views out over the rear garden and the river beyond. A study/bedroom with en-suite shower room completes the ground floor.

The substantial master bedroom enjoys views of the River Waveney and steps down into a charming en-suite bathroom with a free standing roll top bath with shower and his and hers countertop wash basins.

There is an equally spacious second bedroom with a cast iron fireplace and wooden floors, a two room family suite complemented by a contemporary shower room. There is also a further single bedroom which could easily be adapted to create a dressing room to complement the master suite.

The established, well stocked riverside garden extends to the side and rear and is dominated by the stunning view out over the River Waveney and the bridge beyond. The private moorings extend to approximately 110ft, providing scope to keep a substantial Broads cruiser while also offering the space to launch kayaks and paddleboards or simply to sit and fish as life on the river passes you by.

The property is located on the outskirts of Beccles, approximately half a mile from the town centre, within walking distance of a whole host of amenities including a selection of pubs and restaurants and a comprehensive variety of shops and services including sports clubs, a public hall and theatre, a lido and a railway station.

The River Waveney provides access to the entire Norfolk Broads network of rivers.
