Offering stunning panoramic sea views with easy access down onto Scratby's golden sandy beach, this spacious and well presented detached bungalow is equally suitable as a low maintenance permanent home or a perfectly placed holiday property.

Of cavity brick construction under a tiled roof, this extended detached bungalow boasts generous and flexible accommodation that consists of an entrance porch/utility room, leading into an impressive 36ft long open plan living room, kitchen/dining room with a quality fitted kitchen with solid oak worktops and a comprehensive range of built in appliances. The living area is dominated by the breathtaking sea view, complemented by oak flooring and a wood burner.

A spacious 18'6" long garden room makes the most of the coastal views with access to the workshop (former garage) that is crying out to be converted into a fourth bedroom or study (with its own sea view!), all three bedrooms are doubles with an en-suite shower room to the master and a separate family bathroom.

Other features include oil fired central heating, UPVC sealed unit double glazing, solar panels with EV charging point and private parking for 4/5 cars.

Scratby is a quiet, well regarded and unspoilt coastal village offering a superb selection of local amenities including pubs, cafes, post office, garden centre and village store with schools, doctors and dentist all close by.

A deceptively spacious bungalow in a prime coastal location with truly breathtaking views. Early viewing is recommended.
