An impressive high spec boathouse offering day use accommodation set in the heart of Horning, one of the Broads' most sought after villages.

Constructed in 2012 to an excellent standard, of timber construction under a tiled roof set upon steel and concrete piles, combining quality craftsmanship with superb waterside setting.

The generous accommodation is permitted for day use only and consists of an entrance hall, double bedroom with en-suite shower room, utility room leading directly to the boatshed and a stunning 32ft long open plan living, dining and kitchen area to the first floor with French doors out onto a south facing balcony looking out over the water with an external staircase. There is also a first floor bathroom.

The boatshed offers an internal mooring measuring approximately 32'9" x 18'6" with capacity to moor another boat directly outside. Power and water and both supplied. There is also private and secure parking for several vehicles behind a lockable gate.

Offering a high quality finish throughout, with full double glazing, oak internal doors and contemporary laminate flooring. Situated within easy walking distance of the centre of Horning with a comprehensive range of local amenities including three popular riverside pubs, two restaurants, coffee shop, deli, village store/Post Office, sailing club and a variety of boat hire facilities.

Available with no onward chain and with contents available by separate negotiation.
